

FoodCorps Service Member Application

2020-2021

Introduction

Thank you for your interest in being a FoodCorps Service Member! You are applying to join group of 250+ passionate leaders who will become our tenth class of AmeriCorps service members. Before applying, please review all the applicant information on our website at foodcorps.org/apply.

We know that FoodCorps is stronger, more innovative and therefore more impactful when our service members represent a diversity of perspectives and life experiences and feel empowered to raise their voices, offer opinions, and be engaged. We enthusiastically invite people of all ethnic/racial and socioeconomic backgrounds, gender identities, sexual orientations, and ages to apply to serve with us as long as you turn 18 by August 3, 2020. The deadline for submitting your application is March 13th, 2020, 6 pm PST. Here are some things you should be aware of in order to complete the application with the least amount of difficulty and confusion:

- If you have questions regarding the program, service sites, selection timelines, orientation, etc. please e-mail us at serve@foodcorps.org
- Submitting this application is no guarantee or promise of selection for FoodCorps service
- It's always a good idea to apply early (our deadline for applying is March 13) however, the application will remain open until all positions are filled so if you are coming into the process a little late in the game, fear not, you may make it into the pool after all!
- Submit this application by email at serve@foodcorps.org, or by mail to the following address:

ATTN: Service Member Application
FoodCorps
80 Broad Street
Suite 1303
New York, NY 10004

Best of luck! We're excited to learn more about you,

The FoodCorps Team

Screening Questions

You will not qualify for service with FoodCorps if you do not meet the criteria below.

1. Have you or will you have earned at least the equivalent of a high school diploma or GED before August 3, 2020? ***

FoodCorps service members are required to have achieved at least a High School Diploma, GED, or equivalent before the start of the term of service.

- Yes
 No

2. Have you or will you reach the age of 18 by August 3, 2020? ***

Education / Training

FoodCorps welcomes applicants from a wide variety of education and training backgrounds. Your level of education is not the primary determinant in your readiness to serve. Nonetheless, sharing your traditional or nontraditional educational background allows us to evaluate your knowledge and/or training in the fields of agriculture, culinary arts, food systems, education, public health, nutrition, and community organizing.

We recommend that you share up to three of your most relevant and substantive educational experiences, which can include an apprenticeship, leadership training, certification, or study abroad program as well as your undergraduate, graduate, or high school studies. Please begin with your most recent training/education.

Highest level of education completed prior to August 3, 2020: ***
(Institution, Program of Study, Year of Completion)

Would you like to add additional educational experience?

If so, include the Institutions, City/State, Programs of Study, Years of Completion below (you may attach additional sheets if necessary):

References

Please use this space to add up to three references. Ideally we would like for at least two of the references to be people you have worked with in some capacity (Ex. work, volunteering). One of them should be in a supervisory capacity (Ex. manager or professor).

(Check all that apply.)

- Food/Nutrition
- Gardening/Farming
- Education
- Health
- Youth Development/Childcare
- Community Organizing
- Social Justice
- Environment
- Other (please describe)

Do you prefer urban, suburban, or rural placement?

FoodCorps has a high need for people interested in serving rural communities. Selecting “rural” to this question will not preclude you from being considered for positions in urban or suburban sites, but will allow us to more easily share your application with potential service sites.

- Urban
- Suburban
- Rural
- No Preference

Will you own or have access to a vehicle or reliable transportation?

You are not required to have access to a vehicle but your answer will ensure that we place you in the most suitable service position. If you will not have access to a car during your service term, please consult our website for a list of service sites where a car is optional or unnecessary.

Serving with FoodCorps is an 11.5 month commitment, but our service members are allowed to serve up to two years as long as they are still eligible as per AmeriCorps regulations.

Are you potentially interested in serving two terms with FoodCorps?

- Yes
- No

How did you hear about FoodCorps? (Please be as detailed as possible)***

Other Information

We embrace the fact that this a new relationship and thus, there are questions that we could ask that would give us a better picture of who you are. So tell us, is there anything we didn't ask that would be great for us to know about you?

State Selection

You may choose up to 3 states in which you'd prefer to serve.

If you are to advance to the next round in the selection process, your application materials could be sent to any of your state preferences, based on need. If you are not selected for service in that state, your application may be sent to your second or third choice state for further review.

FoodCorps currently serves in the following 18 states:

Arizona, Arkansas, California, Connecticut, Georgia, Hawai'i, Iowa, Maine, Massachusetts, Montana, Mississippi, Michigan, New York, New Jersey, New Mexico, North Carolina, Washington DC Metro Area, Oregon

Although applicants provide state selections, service members are placed in states based on need. FoodCorps cannot guarantee that you will be placed in a state in which you have selected.

Selecting the option, "Open to Anywhere" will allow you to be placed in pools with the most need for applicants, so you will not need to make any other elections in this case.

Short Answers

This section provides you with a space to tell us in your own words about your motivations and interest in serving with FoodCorps. Use this opportunity to share your experience, accomplishments, skills, knowledge and anything else that makes you a unique and well qualified candidate. Before you craft your response, we encourage you to learn more about FoodCorps. Read about our mission, vision, and the approach we are using to build healthy school environments, and what experiences, knowledge, and skills best prepare people to serve with us. You may attach additional sheets if necessary.

Note:

We have found that service members tend to thrive in communities where they are personally connected or with which they share real, lived experience. While we aim to place service members according to these findings, it is not always possible. The main intent of this question is to address those instances where we place service members in unfamiliar communities.

The following request for Black/Indigenous/Multiracial/Person of Color (BIMPOC) identity is for the purposes of directing applicants to the most appropriate question for their identified group. Candidate self selection will not be shared with managers nor will it be used as a determination of applicant qualification. If you are uncomfortable self identifying, please select the appropriate choice (Prefer not to answer).

1. Do you identify as BIMPOC?

- Yes (if yes, please answer question 2 only)
- No (if no, please answer question 3 only)
- Prefer not to answer (if you prefer not to answer, please respond to either question 2 or 3 that you most identify with)

2. Leadership Lens - As someone who potentially shares the lived experience of many of our community members, how can you see yourself applying that experience in your service?

3. Leadership Lens - Please share your reflection on why you chose this call to leadership of a community without having the lived experience of those you hope to lead.

Are you a returning FoodCorps Service Member? *

- Yes
- No

If yes, Describe your experience with your service community. What has been the biggest challenge? The biggest lesson? How have you been successful in engaging with communities around a common goal during your time at FoodCorps?

Knowledge

Tell us about the relationship between food, health, education, and inequality as you understand it.***

You in one sentence.

If you were a vegetable, which vegetable would you be and why? Or, what food has sustained your community?***

Team Leader

FoodCorps will have Team Leaders for the third year, following their introduction in the 2018-2019 school year. There will be one team leader in each of the following 11 states: Arizona, Arkansas, Georgia, Hawai'i, Iowa, Maine, Mississippi, Montana, New Jersey, New Mexico and Oregon. The focus of this role is supporting a statewide cohort of FoodCorps service members. The primary responsibilities will be in-school observation and coaching, state-level training, mentoring and cohort building for a group of up to 11 service members. Team leaders will work in close collaboration and report directly to the program manager in their state. The role will carry with it all of the benefits of being an AmeriCorps member plus an increase in the stipend to $28,588. If you are interested in being considered for this role, please read the full position description to ensure that it matches your interests and skills. If you are not chosen for the Team Leader role, you may still be considered for the Service Member position.

1. Are you interested in applying to be a Team Leader? ***

Section 4*

I certify that the information provided in this application is accurate. I understand that the withholding of any information sought by this application, or the giving of false information on this application, will result in a refusal of selection, or, if discovered after I am selected, in disciplinary action up to and including termination. I hereby grant permission to any person, firm, or corporation to release to FoodCorps or its representatives any and all information regarding my past service, work, or employment and my background. I waive any and all claims I might have with respect to the providing of such information. I further understand and agree that if I am offered and accept a service position with FoodCorps, my service would be on an at-will basis. This means that either I, or FoodCorps, may terminate the service relationship at any time with or without cause. It also means that FoodCorps reserves the right to determine and change at any time my service duties and responsibilities, reporting relationships, compensation and benefits, as well as its personnel policies and procedures for any reason or for no particular reason or cause. Finally, I understand and agree that this constitutes the entire agreement between me and FoodCorps with regard to my application for service.
